

Please do not allow cellular phones inflight for security reasons. If the crew needs to relay safety related information passengers on cell phones might miss important lifesaving information. There have been incidents of interference with the cockpit communications. I don't think it is worth risking human life.